

About Us!

Briefly, Seventh-day Adventists share common beliefs with many other Christians, including the Trinity and salvation only through Jesus Christ. We accept the whole Bible as the revelation of God, and believe the Ten Commandments express God's love, will and purposes.

The name "Seventh-day Adventist" means two things. "Seventh-day Adventist" means that we celebrate the Bible Sabbath on the seventh day (Saturday) of the week. "Adventist" means we believe in the advent, or second coming of Christ our Savior.

Seventh-day Adventists believe in a global mission work with its primary goal to prepare men and women to meet Jesus when He comes again.

Seventh-day Adventists operate some 5,500 schools around the globe (kindergarten through university), more than 450 hospitals and clinics and 55 publishing houses.

Our Mission Statement

By God's Grace

To reflect His character to our community.

To provide a safe place to grow spiritually.

To present the Bible in a manner that will lead people to a richer, more joyous relationship with Christ and His church.
